Information:-

1. The depositor will have to indicate in the applicant form itself as to whether the deposit is to be renewed automatically on maturity. If the depositor wishes to automatically renew the deposit, the deposits under the schemes Deposit Reinvestments Certificate and Fixed Deposits will get automatically renewed in the same scheme from the date of maturity for a further period of original deposit period mentioned in the application form, at the rate of interest applicable as on date of maturity.
2. In case of Cumulative Deposit, the maturity value of the cumulative deposit will be automatically renewed as Deposit Reinvestment Certificate from the date of maturity or a further period of original deposit period mentioned in the application form at the applicable rate of interest as on date of maturity.
3. In case of automatically renewed cumulative deposit, the original renewed deposit receipt viz., DRIC Receipts will be sent to the deposit holder.
4. If the depositor does not prefer for automatic renewal of deposits, the deposit receipts may be sent to the society duly discharged with instructions for further processing of matured deposits.
5. In case of auto-renewed Fixed Deposits the interest payment will continue to be made as per the instructions given in the original application unless the changes of instructions are received in writing from the depositor.
6. The nomination(s) made in the case of original application will continue for the auto-renewed deposits till change of nomination(s), if any, is received in writing duly witnessed by two persons.
7. The original deposit receipts may be sent to the Society on maturity for updation of automatic renewal of deposit to enter the renewal details on the reverse of the original deposit receipts/for issue of fresh deposit receipt. The matured deposit will be automatically renewed for maximum three times.
